

PRE- AND POSTDOCTORAL FELLOW POSITIONS
Center for Global Asia
NYU Shanghai

Two positions, at either the predoctoral (ABD) or postdoctoral level, for the study of intra-Asian interactions are available at the Center for Global Asia at NYU Shanghai. These fellowships are for a period of four months, commencing anytime between February and 1 May 2016.

Candidates working on any aspect or phase of intra-Asian interactions are welcome to apply, but topics related to China-South Asia and China-Southeast Asia exchanges and Indian Ocean connections are of particular interest to the Center.

Applicants for the predoctoral position must have completed all course requirements and should demonstrate strong reasons for research in China. Those applying for the postdoctoral position are expected to hold a PhD, preferably completed within the past five years (2010 and after).

The Center for Global Asia at NYU Shanghai (<https://shanghai.nyu.edu/research/cga>) serves as the hub within the NYU Global Network University system to promote the study of Asian interactions, both historical and contemporary. The overall objective of the Center is to provide global societies with information on the contexts for the reemerging connections between the various parts of Asia through research and teaching. This includes exploring how the politics and societies of Asia have interacted over time and are now beginning to interact again on broad fronts.

Deadline for application is November 30, 2015. To be considered, all applicants need to submit a curriculum vitae, a 3-5 page research proposal, and two letters of reference. Please visit our website at <http://shanghai.nyu.edu/about/work/fellowships> for instructions and other information on how to apply for the positions. If you have any questions, please e-mail Tansen Sen at: cga@nyu.edu.
